FAITH, HOPE AND CHARITY.

There are three things within the human heart,
More precious far than gold or diamonds bright,
That do to life sweet happiness impart,
And lead man upward to the throne of Light:

Faith in God, and in His word divine,
Hope in His mercy, souls to save from sin,
And Charity, to friend or foe, three acts sublime—
The last, the greatest, was the word of Him. R.

THE REGISTRY LAW.

The following is the text of the bill passed on Thursday week by the Radicals of the Pennsylvania House—under gag of the previous question—with the exception of Thorn's amendment, which applies only to Philadelphia. This amendment was concurred in by the Senate on Friday. The bill will now go to the Governor, and, without doubt, receive his approval. The amendment empowers the Philadelphia alderman to appoint a board of canvassers in each election division to make a registry of voters, by which a majority of every board will necessarily be composed of Radicals. Other equally obnoxious and partisan provision are embraced within the amendment, which will undoubtedly meet the decided disapprobation of the people of that city. The balance of the bill, as follows, applying to the whole of the State, except Philadelphia, we hope will be widely published and studied in anticipation of its becoming a law very soon:

A further supplement to the act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passage of this act it shall be the duty of the several assessors within this Commonwealth, on receiving their transcripts from the county commissioners, to proceed to make out a list in alphabetical order of the white freeman above twenty-one years of age who they shall know or who shall make claim to said assessor to be qualified voters within their respective townships, boroughs, wards or other election districts, and opposite said names state whether the said freeman is or is not a housekeeper, and if he is, the number of his residence, in towns where the same are numbered, with the street, alley or court in which situated, and if in a town where there are no numbers, the name of the street, alley or court on which said house fronts; also the occupation of the party, and where he is not a housekeeper, the occupation, place of boarding and with whom; and if working for another, the name of the employer; and write opposite said name the word voter; and, where said party claims to vote by reason of naturalization, he shall exhibit has certificate thereof to the assessor, unless he shall have voted in the township, borough, ward or district at five preceding general elections; and, on exhibition of the certificate, the name shall be marked with the letter N; were the party has merely declared his intention to become a citizen and designs to be naturalized before the next election the name shall be marked D I; where the claim is to vote by reason of being between the ages of twenty-one and two, as provided by law, the word "age" shall be entered, and if the party has moved into the election district to reside since the last general election the letter R shall be placed opposite the name; and in all of the cases enumerated a tax shall forthwith be assessed against the person, and in order to carry this law into effete for the present year it shall be the duty of the commissioners of the respective counties of this Commonwealth, and of the city of Philadelphia, within sixty days after the passage of this act, to cause alphabetical lists of the persons returned by the assessors as having been assessed in the several districts for the present year, to be made out and placed in the hands of the respective assessors, whose duty it shall be, on or before the first of September, to ascertain the qualifications of the persons so named, and their claims to vote as before mentioned and performed, in regard to such persons, all of the duties enjoined by this act and furnish said list to the commissioners and election board, as hereinafter directed: Provided, That the names of all persons who were duty registered and permitted to vote at the next preceding general election in October, shall without further proof or application, be placed on the list or registry directed to be prepared for the election in November, but they and all others shall be subject to challenge and their right to vote be passed on as prescribed by the fourth section of this act.

2. On the list being completed and assessments made as aforesaid, the same shall forthwith be returned to the county commissioners, who shall cause duplicate copies of said lists, with the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid, to be made out as soon as practicable and placed in the hands of the assessor, who shall, prior to the first of August next ensuing said assessments, put one copy thereof on the door of the house where the election of the respective district is required to be held and retain the other in his posession for the inspection, free of charge, of any person resident within the said election district who shall desire to see the same, as it shall be the duty of said assessor to add, from time to time, on the personal application of any one claiming the right to vote, the name of such claimant, and mark opposite the name "C V," and immediatety assess him with a tax. On the tenth day preceding the general election in October next thereafter, it shall be the duty of the assessor to produce the list in his possession to the inspectors and judges of the election of the proper district at a meeting to be held by them as hereinafter directed.

3. It shall be the duty of the inspectors and judge of the election, together with the assessor, to attend at the place of holding the general elections for the respective election districts on Saturday, the tenth day next preceding the second Thursday in October, and on the other days hereinafter mentioned, and continue in open session at said place from nine o'clock a. m. till six o'clock p. m., of said day, to hear proof of the right of the respective persons to vote whose names are contained in the assessor's list, as before mentioned, or who shall apply to them to have their names registered; and all persons who have not previously voted in the election district shall make due proof, in the manner now prescribed by the election laws, of their right to vote in said district, and like proof shall be made in all cases by those applying for registry whose names are not enrolled by the assessor and marked "voter;" and it shall be the duty of the assessor, forthwith, to assess said person with a tax as required by law, on the proof being made to the satisfaction of the election board, if not already assessed; on the list of the voters in the said district being complete, it shall be the duty of the election officers aforesaid to cause duplicate copies thereof to be made out, forthwith, in alphabetical order, one of which shall be placed on the door of the house where the elections are to be held and the other retained by the judge of the election, who shall hold the same subject to the inspection of any citizen of said district until the day of the general election, and produce the same thereat: Provided, that the officers hereinbefore named, when they shall deem it advisable, may meet for the purposes named in this section one or more days (not exceedingly four) prior to the tenth day next preceding any general or presidential election, of which meeting and its purposes they shall give due public notice by written or printed handbills, posted in at least six of the most public places in their respective wards, in cities, boroughs, wards in boroughs or townships; And provided further, that any ward in a city, borough, ward in a borough or township having but one assessor, is divided into two or more election precincts or districts, the judges and inspectors of all such election districts or precincts, in each ward in city, borough, ward in a borough, or township, respectively, shall meet at the usual place of holding the election in the precinct polling the largest number of votes at the last preceding election in their respective wards, boroughs or townships, and shall give due public notice as hereinbefore provided, of the time and place of their meeting, and in all cases where any ward in the city, borough ward in the borough, or township is so divided into two or more election districts, it shall be the duty of the assessor to assess each voter in the election district to which he belongs, and to furnish separate duplicate lists to the election officers in each election district. It shall be the further duty of the said inspectors, judges and assessor, in each ward, borough and township, to meet again, at the place fixed on by the third section of this act, on the Thursday next preceding any general election, between the hours of nine and ten, a. m., and remain in session until six, p. m., for the purpose of hearing and determining any claims that may be presented to them by any person or persons claiming to be entitled to vote and whose name or names have not been entered on the registry of the election district in which he or they claim to be entitled to vote, each person so claiming to be entitled to vote therein shall produce at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to the residence of the claimant in the district in which he claims to be a voter for the period of at least ten days next preceding the general election then next ensuing, which witness shall take and subscribe an affidavit to the facts stated by him, which affidavit shall define clearly where the residence is of the person so claiming to be a voter, and the person so claiming the right to be registered shall also take and subscribe an affidavit stating where and when he was born; that he is a citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of the United States; and, if a naturalized citizen, shall also state when, where and by what court he was naturalized: and he shall also present his certificate of naturalization for examination, unless he has been a voter in said election district for five years then next preceding; that he has resided in this Commonwealth one year, or, if formerly a citizen therein and has moved therefrom, that he has resided therein six months next preceding the general election then next following; that he has not moved into the district for the purpose of voting therein; that he has not been registered as a voter elsewhere; that he has paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed at least ten days before the election for which he proposes to be registered, and that he was prevented from registering his name at the first meeting for that purpose as directed by this act; the said affidavit shall also state when and where the tax claimed to be paid by the affidavit was assessed, and when, where and to whom paid, and the tax receipt thereof shall be produced for examination unless the affiant shall make oath that it has been lost or destroyed or that he never received any receipt: Provided, That if the person so claiming the right to vole shall take and subscribe an affidavit that he is a citizen of the United States; that he is, at the time of taking the affidavit, or will be on or before the day of the next election ensuing, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years; that he has resided in the State one year and in the election district ten days next preceding such election, he shall be entitled to be registered as a voter, although he shall not have paid taxes. The said affidavits of all persons making such claims, and the affidavit of the witnesses to their residence, shall be preserved by the said board until the day of the election, and shall, at the close thereof, be placed in the ballot box along with the other papers now required by law to be preserved therein. If said board shall find that the applicant or applicants possess all the legal qualifications of voters, the name or names shall be added to the list alphabetically, with like effect as if done ten days before the election, and they shall forthwith be placed with the other names at the foot of the list on the door or house of the place of election, and as each person whose name is enrolled votes at said election one of the clerks thereof shall mark on or opposite to the name "vote," and it shall not be lawful for the officers of the election to receive the vote of any person whose name was not contained in said registry, made out and put up at least eight days before the election, as aforesaid, or in the registry made on the Thursday next preceding the election, and the reception of the vote of any person not so registered shall constitute a misdemeanor in the election officers so receiving it, and, on conviction thereof, the election officers so offending shall be subject to fine or imprisonment, or both, at the discretion of the court.

4. It shall be lawful for any qualified citizen of the district, notwithstanding the name of the proposed voter is contained in the registry, and the right to vote has been passed on by the election board, to challenge the vote of such person, whereupon the same proof of the right of suffrage as is now required by law shall be publicly made and again acted on by the election board, and the vote admitted or rejected according to the evidence. Every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, as required by existing laws, except where his case comes within the fifth provision of the sixty-fourth section of the act of one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, to which this is a supplement, although the same may have been exhibited to the election board before registry; and, on the vote of such person being received, it shall be the duty of the election officers to cause to be distinctly written thereon the word "voted," with the month and year, and if any election officers at the same or any other district shall receive a second vote on the same day by virtue of such certificate, and the person who shall offer such second vote, the persons so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, be fined and imprisoned at the discretion of the court: Provided, said fine shall not exceed one hundred dollars and the imprisonment shall not exceed one year, and like punishment shall be inflicted on the officers of the election who shall neglect or refuse to make, or cause to be made the endorsement required as aforesaid on said naturalization certificate.

5. On the close of the polls the registry list, on which the memorandum of the voting has been kept as before directed, shall be sealed up with and preserved in the same manner now required by law as to the tally papers, and not taken out until after the next meeting of the Legislature, unless required on the hearing of a contested election or for the purpose of being used at the election of presidential electors, or preparatory thereto, as hereinafter povided, after which it shall again be sealed up and carefully preserved as before directed.

6. Ten days preceding every election for electors of President and Vice President of the United States, it shall be the duty of the election board and the proper assessor to meet at the place of holding the general election in the district for the same length of time and in the manner directed in the third section of this act, and then and there hear all applications of persons whose names have been omitted from the registry and who claim the right to vote, or whose right of suffrage in such district, on the personal application of the claimant only, and, if the person shall not have been previously assessed, it shall be the duty of the assessor forthwith to assess him with the proper tax. After completing the list a copy thereof shall be placed on the door of the house where the election is to be held, at least eight days prior to holding the same, when the same course shall be pursued in every particular in regard to receiving or rejecting the votes, marking the same on the registry list, endorsing the naturalization papers with the proper month and year, preserving the paper and all other things as are required by this act at the general elections in October.

7. At every special election directed by law, and at every city, ward, borough or township election, the registry required to be kept as aforesaid may be used by the proper officers as evidence of the persons entitled to vote thereat, and said officers shall require all persons whose names are not on the registry, whether challenged or not, to show that they possess the right of suffrage at said election; but nothing herein contained shall make the want of said registry conclusive against the right of the person to vote at such election, but the same shall be judged of and decided as in other cases.

8. Before entering on the duties of their offices under this act, the respective assessors and inspectors and judges of the elections shall take an oath, before some competent authority, in addition to the oaths now required by law, "to perform the several duties enjoined by this with fidelity and according to the requirements thereof in every particular, to the best of their ability." They shall each have the power to administer oaths to every person claiming the right to be assessed or enrolled or the right of suffrage, or in regard to any other matter or thing required to be done or inquired into by said officers under this act, and any wilful false swearing by any person in relation to any matter or thing concerning which they shall be lawfully interrogated by any of said officers under this act, shall be punished as perjury. Said assessors, inspectors and judges shall each receive the same compensation for the time necessarily spent in performing the duties hereby enjoined as is provided by law for the performance of their other duties, to be paid by the county commissioners as in other cases, with a proper allowance to be judged of by the said commissioners for the expense of making the list or registries hereby required to be made out; and it shall not be lawful for any assessor to assess a tax against any person whatever within ten days next preceding the election to be held on the second Tuesday in October, in any year, or within ten days next before any election for electors of President or Vice-President of the United States, and any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor, and subject the officer so offending to a fine, on conviction, of not less than ten nor exceeding one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

9. On the petition of five or more citizens of the county, stating under oath that they verily believe that frauds will be practiced at the election about to be held in any district, it shall be the duty of the court of common pleas of said county, if in session, or, if not, a judge thereof in vacation, to appoint two persons, judicious, sober and intelligent citizens of the county, to act as overseers at said election. Said persons shall be selected from different political parties, where the inspectors belong to different parties, and where both of said inspectors belong to the same political party, both of the overseers shall be taken from the opposite political party. Said overseers shall have the right to be present with the officers of the election during the whole time the same is held, the votes counted and returns made out and signed by the election officers; to keep a list of the voters, if they see proper; to challenge any person offering to vote and interrogate him and his witnesses under oath in regard to the right of suffrage at said election; to examine his papers produced, and the officers of said election are reqnired to afford to said overseers, so selected and appointed, every convenience and facility for the discharge of their duty; and if said officers shall refuse to permit said overseers to be present and perform their duty as aforesaid, or they shall be driven away from the polls by violence or intimidation, all the votes polled at such election district shall be rejected by any tribunal trying a contest under said election.

10. If any prothonotary, clerk or the deputy of either, or any other person, shall affix the seal of office to any naturalization paper and give out the same in blank, whereby it may be fraudulently used, or furnish naturalization certificate to any person who shall not have been duly examined and sworn in open court in presence of some of the judges thereof, of, according to the act of Congress, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor; or if any person shall fraudulently use any such certificate of naturalization, knowing that it was fraudulently issued, and shall vote or attempt to vote thereon, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and either or any of the persons, their aiders or abetors, guilty of either of the misdemeanors aforesaid, on conviction, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and imprisoned in the proper penitentiary for a period not exceeding three years.

11. Any assessor, election officer or person appointed as an overseer, who shall neglect or refuse to perform any duty enjoined by this act, without reasonable legal cause, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars; and if any assessor or election officer shall enrol any person as a voter who he shall know is not qualified, or refuse to enrol any one who he shall know is qualified, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and, on conviction, be punished by fine and imprisonment, and also be subject to an action for damages by the party aggrieved; and if any person shall fraudulently alter, add to, deface or destroy any registry of voters, made out as directed by this act, or tear down or remove the same from the place where it has been fixed, by or under the direction of the election officers, with like fraudulent or mischievous intent, or for any improper purpose, the person so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and, on conviction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisonment not exceeding two years.

12. If any tax collector is found guilty of issuing a receipt for taxes to any person whatsoever, said taxes not having been paid, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and, on conviction, shall be fined in a sum not less than one hundred dollars, and suffer an imprisonment in the county jail for a term not less than three months for every offence.

13. That for all elections hereafter holden under this act, the polls shall be opened between the hours of six and seven o'clock A. M., and be closed at six o'clock P. M.

15. All laws inconsistent with any of the provisions of this act be, and the same are hereby repealed.

HEROISM OF AN ENGINEER.—An attempt was made on the night of the 15th of March to wreck a passenger train on the East Tennessee and Georgia Rail Road, two miles beyond Cleveland. At the place referred to is a switch, of which only occasional use is made. Some unknown person or persons took out the bolt of the switch-bar and turned the switch for the purpose of throwing the train off the track. On reaching the spot the engineer at once noticed that the train was leaving its proper course and had the presence of mind to reverse the engine. With a self devotion as heroic as rare he called to his brother, the fireman, to save himself by jumping from the tender, having at the same time determined to remain at his post. After passing along the switch, which was only about sixty yards in length, the locomotive plunged into a deep ditch, turned almost completely over and struck against the opposite side. This brought the whole train to a sudden halt, but strange to relate no injuries beyond a few slight bruises were received by any of the large number of passengers, nor did the brave engineer get so much as a scratch. The villains who tampered with the switch endeavored to make sure of their murderous work by pounding large rocks into the ground beside the rails on which the train was to be turned and by placing sleepers on the track.

SOLD.—A rich old widower in Canada is said to have practiced a very artful scheme to gain the hand of the belle of the village. He got an old gipsy to tell the young lady's fortune in the words which he dictated as follows:

"My dear young lady, your star will soon be hid for a short time by a very dark cloud, but when it re-appears it will continue to shine with uninterrupted splendor until the end of your days. Before one week a wealthy old widower, wearing a suit of black and a fine castor hat, will pay you a visit and request your hand in marriage. You will accept his offer, become his wife, and be left a widow, in possession of all his property, before the close of the year. The next husband will be the young man of whom you think most at present."

Three days after, the old gentleman, dressed in the manner described by the gipsy, presented himself to the young lady, and the marriage followed. The year is more than out, but the tough old widower still lingers.

IN a certain family, not long since, a pair of twins made their appearance, and as a matter of course, were shown to their little sister of four years. Now it so happened that when a rather prolific cat of the household had kittens, one of them, of course the prettiest, was saved, and the rest drowned. When the twins were shown the child by their happy father, little M——— looked at them long and earnestly, and at length, putting her little finger-tips on the cheek of one of them, looked up, and said, with all the seriousness possible—"Papa, I think we'll save this one."

A DAY or two since, two ladies from the country, on a shopping excursion, dropped into a hardware store, where agricultural implements are sold and innocently inquired for cradles. The storekeeper said it was rather late in the season for the article, and he had sold all he purchased. The ladies looked at each other wonderingly, and whispered laughingly, when one, turning to the blushing storekeeper, remarked, "Out of season! I thought babies were always in season!"

—An old coin was recently dug up in a garden in Gloucester, Mass. It is a French copper coin, about the size of a silver half dollar, and bears on one side a vignette of Louis XVI, and the date of 1703. On the reverse side is a wreath with a cross passing through the centre.

AN INCIDENT OF '76.

Night had set in deep, and in a small log cabin situated a few miles from Trenton, N. J., sat five men, four of whom were seated around an old oaken table in the center of the room engaged in playing cards, while they frequently moistened their throats with large draughts from an earthen jug that stood on the table.

They were heavily bearded, coarse looking men, and from their dress, which somewhat resembled the British uniform, they were evidently tories. The other was a stout built young man, clad in the continental uniform. He sat in one corner of the room with his face buried in his hands.

"Tom," said one of the Tories, rising from the table and seating himself near the young prisoner, for such he evidently was, "Tom, you and I were school-boys together, and I like you yet. Now, why can't you give up your wild notions and join us. You are our prisoner, and if you don't we shall hand you over to headquarters to morrow, while if you join us your fortune is made, for with your bravery and talents you will soon distinguish yourself in the royal army, and after this rebellion is crushed out, your cause would be rewarded by a knighthood and promotion in the army. Now there are two alternatives; which do you choose?"

"Neither," said the young man, raising his head and looking the Tory steadily in the eye.

"I am now, as you say, your prisoner, but when the clock strikes twelve I shall leave you—I shall disappear in a cloud of fire and smoke, and neither you nor your comrades, not even myself can prevent it. You may watch me as closely as you please, tie me hand and foot if you will, but a higher power than yours or mine has ordained that I shall leave you at that time."

"Poor fellow, his mind wanders," said the Tory, "he'll talk differently in the morning." And he returned to his seat at the table, leaving the youth with his head again resting in his hands.

When the clock struck eleven, the young prisoner drew a pipe and some tobacco from his pocket, and asked the Tory leader if he had any objection to his smoking. "None in the least," he said, adding with a laugh—"that is, if you'll promise not to disappear in a cloud of tobacco smoke."

The young man made no reply, but immediately filled and lighted his pipe, having done which, he arose and commenced pacing the floor.

He took half a dozen turns up and down each side of the room, approaching nearer the table each time, when having exhausted his pipe he returned to his seat and refilled it.

He continued to smoke until the clock struck twelve, when he arose from his seat and slowly knocking the ashes out of his pipe, said:

"There, boys, it's twelve o'clock, and I must leave you; good bye!"

Immediately all around the room streaks of fire ran hissing and squirming; the cabin was filled with dense, sulphurous smoke, amidst which was heard a clap of thunder. The Tories sat in their chairs paralyzed with fright.

The smoke soon cleared away, but the prisoner was nowhere to be seen. The table was overturned, the window was smashed to pieces, and one chair was lying on the ground outside of the building.

The Tory leader, after recovering from his stupor, gave one glance around the room and sprang out of the window, followed by his comrades. They ran through the forest at the top of their speed in the direction of the British encampment, leaving their muskets and other arms to the mercy of the flames, which had now begun to devour the cabin.

The next day two young men dressed in the Continental uniform were seen standing near the ruins of the old cabin. One was of the night previous. "Let us hear all about it, Tom," said the other.

"Well," said he, "last evening as I was passing this place, two Tories ran out of the cabin and took possession of me. Before I could make any resistance they took me in, and who do you suppose I saw as a leader of their party but John Barton, our old school-mate. He talked with me, and tried to induce me to join them; but I told them I couldn't do it—that at twelve o'clock I was going to escape, disappear in a cloud of fire and smoke; but he laughed at me and said I was out of my head.

"About eleven o'clock I asked him if I might smoke. He said he had no objections; so I filled my pipe and lighted it, and commenced walking the floor. I had about a pound of gunpowder in my pocket, and as I walked I strewed it all over the floor. When the clock struck twelve I bid them good bye, and told them I had to go; and then knocking the ashes out of my pipe, the powder ignited and a dazzling flame of fire shot across, around and all over the room, filling it with suffocating smoke. Before it cleared away I hurled a chair through the window, sprang out and departed, leaving them to their own reflections. You know the rest."

LAUGHTER.—Fun ought to be cherished and encouraged by all lovers of home. People never plot mischief when they are merry. Laughter is an enemy to malice, a foe to scandal, and a friend to every virtue. It promotes good temper, enlivens the heart, and brightens the intellect.

THE FREEMAN.

EBENSBURG, PA.,
THURSDAY, : : : : APRIL 16, 1868.

Democratic State Ticket.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL:
HON. CHARLES E. BOYLE,
Of Fayette County.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL:
GEN. WELLINGTON H. ENT,
Of Columbia County.

Beau Hickman and the Tribune.

John Hickman, a leading Radical legislator, denounces Irish Catholics, and German "lager beer swillers," as inferior to the negro. The Johnstown Tribune tries to wiggle out of it thus:

We certainly do not endorse the sentiments attributed to Mr. John Hickman and others, purporting to have been uttered by them in debate at Harrisburg the other day. Proscription of any man on account of his race, religion or color is not a Republican principle and finds no favor with the masses of the party and its real leaders. It is the Democratic party that inculcates and practices a proscriptive policy. It proposes to grind under its pro slavery heel four millions of native born Americans simply because they have black skins. John Hickman made a fool of himself, but the Democracy is no wiser than he and infinitely more depraved in all its instincts.

In the above five sentences there are double the number of misrepresentations, to term them by no harsher name.

1. "Proscription of any man on account of race, religion or color is" "a Republican (radical) principle, and finds" "favor with the masses of the party and its real leaders." The whole Know-Nothing party is embodied in the Radical party, and bound its members by horrid oaths to deny the rights of citizenship to all who had the misfortune to be born on the other side of the Atlantic. The editor of the Tribune himself was a member of that organization! So much for race. They denied the rights of citizenship to every Roman Catholic. So much for religion! The present Radical party proscribes the white man and gives power to the negro. So much for color.

2. It is not true that the Democratic party "inculcates and practices a proscriptive policy." They hold that this is a white man's government, made by white men, for white men and their posterity forever. They do not seek to deprive the negro of any privileges he ever had, but they are not willing to make them rulers over the white population.

3. The Tribune again misrepresents the facts, and contradicts itself, in claiming equal privileges for the negroes. No State, even the most radical, that has held an election within the last five years on the subject, that has not declared against the capacity of the negro for suffrage. We mean in the Northern States, where the negro is supposed to have all the intelligence he is capable of acquiring. While in the South, where his ignorance is still greater, his condition still more degraded, the whites are asked to yield up the government to his ebony hands.

For shame, Mr. Tribune. Meet this question honestly, as is your wont.

ACKNOWLEDGING GOD!

A pamphlet has been sent to us, containing an argument in favor of the new kink lately got up by weak-minded men and strong minded women, amending the Constitution by adopting a clause acknowledging the existence of a Supreme Being. The Constitution framed by Christian men—the fathers of the republic—was framed for the government of men; and when the existence and goodness of a Supreme Being was felt and recognized by all, it was hardly thought necessary to have it transcribed into the national compact, any more than the existence of the world, the sun, or anything else that everybody admitted.

But what good would inserting it do? It would be repealed, like the rest of the Constitution, by the Rump Congress.

If these Radicals are anxious to have an acknowledgment of God in high places, they are taking a sure means of obtaining it by the impeachment; for old Ben. Wade, when he gets to be President, will recognize the existence of a God by proclamation—in other words, by taking his name in vain in every sentence he utters.

THE TRIAL.

The Impeachment trial was resumed on Thursday last. Judge Curtis opened for the defense in an able and exhaustive effort, which must have carried conviction to every unbiassed mind. There was no effort at display—no reaching for stage effect, as in Butler's bombastic effusion in the opening on the other side—but a succinct statement of facts and the law bearing upon those facts. If the opening is sustained by the evidence, and we have no doubt it will be, the defence is complete and ample, unless, indeed, as is alleged, the Court was only organized to convict.

We await, however, without much concern this contest between the Radicals and their own President. It is a pitiable sight—such an one as could never have happened under Democratic rule.

The readers of the Freeman shall be kept advised of the progress of this radical fiasco.

TAXATION!

The people of the United States are more heavily taxed in this year of grace, 1868, than they have been at any time since the foundation of our Government. These taxes weigh as an incubus on every acre of land, on every chattel, on all the proceeds of labor, and on every commercial transaction.

These burdens have hitherto been borne patiently, but the people are beginning to inquire when a partial relief may be expected, or whether this state of things is to be perpetual. While the rebellion was unsubdued men and money were freely given; but we have had three years of profound peace, and yet the taxes are not reduced—neither is the public debt diminished.

Tax-payers were willing to expend their blood and treasure in a four years' war to keep the Southern States in the Union, but they hesitate about being taxed to the same extent for an indefinite period to keep them out of the Union. The Southern people have resources sufficient to pay their own taxes, if allowed to develop them, and govern themselves; yet we are taxed not less than one hundred and fifty millions a year to govern them and feed and clothe the negroes.

And this is to continue until the Southern States agree to hand over the reins of power to the negro race—a period which never will, never can, arrive; for the day will never come when the free white people of the Southern States, or of any State or country, will place themselves under African rule.

Then the plain and simple method of relief from these burdens of taxation is to accept the result of the war as the restoration of the Union—to not only permit but require the Southern States not only to support themselves, but to contribute their resources to the payment of our indebtedness.

Unless this is done, and more particularly if Radical extravagance in a Freedman's Bureau and a Southern army is to be perpetuated, national bankruptcy, or what is worse, national repudiation, must come as surely as the night succeed the day.

Let us ponder these things in time.

THE REGISTRY LAW.

We give this law a place on our first page, that our readers may become acquainted with its provisions. It should be entitled "An act to increase the difficulties of exercising the right of suffrage." The object of its passage was doubtless to prevent Democrats from voting. We regret that the evil times in which we live has imposed this new clog upon suffrage, but we must bear it, and it is important that every citizen should familiarize himself with its provisions.

The great objections to the law are, that it complicates the machinery of elections, adds to the duties of county commissioners, assessors, and election officers, and greatly increases the expenses of government, and consequently the taxes of the people.

The greatest objection to the law, however, is, that the polls are closed at six o'clock—an hour earlier than under the present law, and thus the laboring classes, who are composed almost entirely of Democrats, cannot, as heretofore, complete their day's work before voting. The silk stocking gentry well know that the hands of labor do not often deposit a Radical ticket.

What seems unaccountable to us is, that the Radicals, while making it so very easy for the negroes to vote, are every day imposing new restrictions on free white suffrage.

The 'Sober Second Thought!"

The people North and South, East and West, at the recent elections, are "impeaching the impeachers." There is a steady Democratic gain all over the country. The name of General Grant has been thrown into the canvass in vain. New Hampshire led off, and the rally was on General Grant—the result is a reduced majority for the Radicals. So in Connecticut—English, the Democratic candidate is re-elected, doubling his majority over Jewell, the Radical, since the last year's election. This is speaking plain English to the Rump. Connecticut, like the Roman matrons of old, is willing to sacrifice her Jewells upon the altar of her country. In nearly all the charter elections we have a similar gain.

THE impeachment farce is still in progress in Washington, and the managers are making every effort to secure conviction, no matter what means may be necessary to attain that end. Their latest infamy is the overruling of the decision of the Chief Justice as to the admissability of a portion of Gen. Sherman's evidence. The impeachers dread the truth, and dare not permit it to go before the people, and hence the ruling which has shut out a truthful statement of the conversation between the President and General Sherman in relation to the removal of Stanton.

A Grave Question.

The impending convulsion is to be heightened, it seems, by a question that will further put in jeopardy the tranquility of the country. Wade, it is clear, is not eligible to the place of President Johnson, and, to get it, must resort to a sheer usurpation, to which the forms of impeachment lend no color at all.

Who should succeed not only a President, but also a Vice-President who had been called to fill the higher office, has been a question that seemed so remote that it never has enlisted close attention. The clique that governs in Congress selected Wade, and made him President of the Senate, with the intention that he should supplant the President of the United States by the machinery of an impeachment.

But his right is challenged from a high quarter. A paper of great ability recently appeared in the National Intelligencer, at Washington; it seemed traceable to a high legal source; and Forney's Press yesterday admitted that it was inspired by the Chief Justice of the United States: "Although it has been repeatedly and persistently denied, it is now proven beyond cavil that the sensational article which appeared some days ago in the National Intelligencer was favored by Chief Justice Chase, as was asserted by the New York Evening Post."

The article in question proves, incontestably, that Congress cannot put one of its own members into the President's place. Indeed, it seems so clear, that it is singular it should not have been always obvious; but, as we have said, the conjuncture never before seemed probable—the subject never before enlisted very close attention. In case of removal of both President and Vice-President, the Constitution allows Congress "to declare what officer shall then act as President." Now, by more authority than we have space here to cite, it is settled that members of Congress are not "officers" of the government. By section 4 of the second article of the Constitution "all civil officers are impeachable;" it has been decided that Senators are not impeachable. The third section of the same article says "the President shall commission all the officers of the United States;" now, the President does not commission members of Congress. It is also clear that by the Constitution it is some "officer" who shall "act" as President without ceasing to be the "officer" he was. This excludes the quibble raised for Wade that he is an officer of the Senate—its presiding officer. But this does not make him an "officer of the United States." Moreover, if he was to assume the Presidency he could be no longer even a presiding officer of the Senate; so he would be no officer at all; he could not be "an officer" who could "act" as President.

This is a close condensation of a long argument. We may add that for a Senator to "act" as President would lead to inconsistencies which the framers of the Constitution could never have intended. He could nominate to the Senate, and then vote on the nominations. He could make treaties and vote for their ratification. In short, it would create a confusion between the Executive and Legislative branches, which it is a leading object of the Constitution to prevent.

We do not doubt that the article which is of such interest, and has enlisted such attention, will soon be published in some convenient form.—Phila. Age, 11th.

A MATERNAL EXAMPLE WORTHY OF IMITATION.—The Lynn (Mass.) Reporter tells the story of an Irish woman, who has been a mother indeed to her fatherless children. Her name is McCarty. Her husband was lost in a fishing vessel from Gloucester, and she was left with four children, the eldest of whom was only eight years. Finding that she could not bring up her children respectably in Massachusetts on her slender earnings, she sold her furniture and put her children at a Catholic school in Brooklioe, agreeing to pay a certain stipend for their board and instruction, secured a passage round Cape Horn to California by working as stewardess, arriving safely, went to work there to earn money and from thence went to Nevada Territory. Everything that she could save from her earnings was sent home for her children, to the care of a woman who had charge of them. This continued until Mrs. McCarty became apprised of the unfaithfulness of this woman, when she immediately borrowed money enough to bring her to Massachusetts—having just previously sent all she had to the dishonest woman—and started to find her children. They were scattered around; three of them in families; one of them had died without her being apprised of it, and one of them was where he was ill used. She gathered them together and has started back with them to California, determined hereafter not only to work for them, but to have them where she can look after them. Such energy and maternal fidelity deserve a record, as an example and an encouragement to others.

DON'T DENY.—The Harrisburg Patriot and Union says: The morning mongrel is "assured by several Senators" that Senator Landon did not "refer contemptuously to the Germans of Pennsylvania." Well, to what other Germans than those of Pennsylvania did he refer? Of course he referred to those of this State when he denounced the Germans as a class. Besides this it would have been more appropriate for such a denial to come from Landon himself instead of from "several Senators"—which is very vague and indefinite. Landon has made no denial. Besides this, again, "several Senators" have not denied what Fisher said about the "bog trotting, ignorant Irishmen, and swag-bellied, lager beer Dutchmen," nor what Hickman said about negroes being better entitled to vote than Catholics, although we have been informed that delegations of "policy" Radicals have waited upon them and desired a denial as well as a modification of their language before their speeches appear in the Legislative Record.

ONE negro cut another nearly in two with a knife in Mississippi the other day.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

—The steamer Sea Bird was burned on Lake Michigan, on the morning of the 9th inst., and nearly one hundred lives were lost. Only three persons escaped.

—Dr. Livingstone, the great African explorer, has at last been heard from in an authentic manner, viz: through a letter addressed by himself to Sir Roderick Murchison, and received in London.

—The people of Milan, Missouri, were appalled on Wednesday night last by the appearance of a dense black cloud immediately over the town, with the figure of a snow white coffin clearly defined upon its centre.

—A Democratic voter of Hartford, Connecticut, who was incapacitated by rheumatism, was carried to the polls, Monday, on his wife's back. The crowd at the polls gave three cheers to the woman, and made up a purse of $200 for her.

—A darkey, near Nashville, the other night, was scared out of his five senses, by a horseman whom he encountered on the road, who, after a little conversation, handed his skull to the negro, requesting him to hold it a minute while he fixed his backbone.

—About twenty of the convicts of the Nashville penitentiary, recently pardoned by Brownlow, have taken posession of an old building in the suburbs of that city and are committing all sorts of depredations, from robbing hen roosts to attempting to ravish females.

—John Magee, who died recently at his residence in Schuyler county, New York, the owner of property estimated to be worth $40,000,000, commenced life without a cent. His ownership of Pennsylvania coal mines and lines of transportation leading directly to them, gave him the bulk of this great wealth.

—An exchange says that Senator Yates, of Illinois, has been too drunk to cast a vote ever since impeachment commenced. 'Tis fortunate for him, for thereby he has so far escaped the infamy of perjury and treason. He may live to see the time when he will bless his stars for being a drunkard.

—A dispatch from Springfield, Ill., says: The movement intended to force Senator Yates to resign did not originate from any disgust at his unfortunate habit, but the effect of wide spread belief among the members of his party that he is not sound on the impeachment question. It is said that he positively declared at the close of the testimony for the prosecution that he could not vote for a conviction on the evidence presented.

—A terrible accident occurred at St. Mary's cathedral, Chicago, on Friday night. The cathedral was densely crowded on the occasion of "Good Friday" services. An alarm of fire created a panic in the church, and in the rush for the door, a portion of the galleries fell through, and three persons, all females, were instantly killed. Several others were seriously injured, two of whom will probably die.

—The Connecticut election, according to the official returns, resulted in a Democratic majority of 1,781, in a total poll of 99,267. The total Democratic vote was 50,444, and the total Republican vote 48,565. In 1867 the Democrats polled 47,565 votes, and the Republicans 46,578 votes, a Democratic majority of 987 in a total poll of 94,143. Since 1867, therefore, the Democratic vote has increased 2,879, the Republican vote 2,085, and the Democratic majority has increased 794.

—Ben Butler wants to get Grant before the high old court as a witness in order to show him up to the country in his true colors as a humbug and cheat in a military point of view, and as a nonentity in every other respect. The rest of the managers have objected and are using all their vigilance and every effort to foil Ben. They can't afford to let their dummy speak unless he has been first "set up." It is to be hoped the President's counsel will bring him up and allow Benjamin to lift the veil.

—The funeral of Hon. T. D'Arcy McGee took place in Ottawa on the morning of the 13th instant. It was the most imposing ceremony ever witnessed in Canada. Thirty thousand people were in the procession and eighty thousand on the streets. The remains were taken to St. Patrick's Cathedral and to the French Parish Church, and an eloquent sermon delivered by Rev. O'Farrell at the former and a short address by the Bishop at the latter church, after which they were interred in the Catholic cemetery.

—Thos. D'Arcy McGee, a member of the Canadian House of Commons, and a most eloquent and widely known gentleman, was shot dead by an unknown assassin, on the steps of his boarding house in Ottawa, Canada, on the evening of the 7th inst. Mr. McGee was born in Ireland in 1825, and came to this counlry when 17 years of age, but subsequently returned to his native land, from whence he afterwards came back and became editor of the N. Y. Nation. Several persons have been arrested on suspicion of complicity in his murder, and are now under examination.

SINGULAR.—The original copy of Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation recently sold out West for the sum of twelve hundred dollars. The commission of Dick Turpin, the great English highwayman and robber, which the eccentric rascal had drawn up, and forged the seal and signature thereto, sold recently in London for two hundred and fifty pounds—just the sum bid for the Emancipation Proclamation. Singular coincidence, very. We hope every Loyal League will secure a copy of these two celebrated documents. They might get their loyal members to believe that their robberies are committed under the warrant of these two celebrities, whose business, while tenemented here below, was practically the same.—Clearfield Republican.

WE judge from the immense sales that Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER OR DRESSING (in one bottle) is preferred by every one. Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar. [ap.9.1m.

—The Salem (Ind.) Times says that Abner Fields, of Howard township, in Washington county, had a cow which was delivered of twenty-eight calves in one day. The two largest are about the size of ordinary twin calves, the next largest about one-half size, and the remaining twenty-five about the size of an ordinary rat. They are all dead, mother included, except the two largest, which are doing well. The statement above is from Mr. Fields himself, and from several neighbors of his, who witnessed the sight, and who are as fully entitled to belief as any person in the world. This is the most singular freak of nature, of the kind, of which we ever heard.

WE ARE STILL MAKING A COMPLETE REVOLUTION IN TRADE, and selling every description of Dry and Fancy Goods, Plated Ware, Jewelry, Watches, Sewing Machines, &c., for the uniform price of ONE DOLLAR. We would impress upon our patrons that our Stock is not composed of second handed goods or Pawn Broker's unredeemed stock, but goods carefully selected direct from American and European Manufactories, the greater portion of which are MANUFACTURED EXCLUSIVELY FOR US, which fact enables us to offer our customers better Goods for the money than those who profess to be "Manufacturers' Agents," or than can be obtained in any other way.
The unparalleled increase of our business, and the endorsement of prominent business men and the press in general, is a convincing proof that we have adopted the fairest and most popular system ever placed before the public. We are the first who have attempted to make a "Revolution in Trade," by enabling the public to procure goods in small quantities at manufacturers' prices, thus saving the consumer three large profits made in passing through the hands of the Commission Merchant, the Wholesaler, and Retailer.
Send Clubs of ten or more, with ten cents for each descriptive check, and the getter up of the club will receive a present worth $3 to $300, according to number sent. ☞Send for our New Circular. We have also made arrangements with the GREAT ORIENTAL TEA CO., of Boston, so that we can furnish our customers with other Goods and their full line of teas at precisely the same terms to Agents as though dealing directly with the company, thus giving an opportunity of selecting from the various grades any quality they may desire. We also pay agents the same commissions as allowed by the Company. Blank form of order, with price-list and "The Tea Cup," sent to any address.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EDITORIALITIES, LOCAL AND GENERAL.—A little child of Mr. Daniel Weer, of Homer, Indiana county, fell head foremost into a trough filled with water, week before last, [illegible].

A daughter of Rev. B. McFerrin, of Salem township, Westmoreland county, was thrown from a horse not long since, and was considerably injured.

A little son of Mr. Chas. Gorman, Altoona, upset a tea pot full of boiling tea upon its person, which stood at the supper table, on Wednesday evening last, whereby it was scalded in a very serious manner.

We learn with much regret of the dangerous illness of our friend, Mr. Geo. McGough, of St. Augustine, whose physician reports his condition as almost a hopeless one. We hope the present fears of his friends may not be realized, however.

An over indulgence in fighting whisky led to a dispute in White township, this county, on Friday last, between two men named Gindel and Farley, and the result was the former cut the latter across the ribs with a pen knife, inflicting a painful but not dangerous wound.

Mrs. Lynn Dodd, of this place, a few days since presented to Rev. R. C. Christy, pastor of the Catholic church here, a magnificent gold chalice—the first (but we trust not the last) handsome and costly gift that has been made to the new church being erected in our town. A good deed carries with it its own recompense to a generous heart.

Highland Temple of Honor, No. 10, was reorganized on Monday evening last, in the Hall of the Sons of Temperance, in this place, by D. G. W. T. Dr. James Dunn, of New Washington. This Temple has not been in working order for several years, but now bids fair to prosper and wield a wholesome influence for the cause of temperance.

Variety is said to be the spice of life, but when it comes to such a variety of weather as has prevailed in this latitude for the past week or two, we feel like entering our protest against such a wholesale spice arrangement. Between snowing and blowing, raining and freezing, there is but little left of the life but the spice part, and it ain't worth having.

From a letter from this place published in the last Johnstown Tribune we clip the following: A few days ago, a man whose name we are unable to spell correctly, attempted to commit suicide at or near Gallitzin, this county, by taking poison. A little emetic, however, administered to him by his friends, frustrated his design and saved him [illegible]. It was all about some love matter.

Owing to some delay in receiving names of subscribers from our agents, we have postponed the publication of the promised list until next week. The roll is a very brief one, but we can hardly conceive ourself how the machine was run for the past three or four months. If our friends consider the Freeman worthy of support we trust they will no longer delay giving a practical proof of that fact.

The Altoona Tribune says that the Cincinnati Express west, on the Pa. R. R., ran against a German traveler walking on the track near Lilly's Station, this county, on Sunday week, knocking him over an embankment and breaking three of his ribs. The train was stopped and the injured man taken to Wilmore Station, where he received the proper medical attention. His injuries are not considered dangerous.

Shirleysburg, Huntingdon county, has been Radical away for several years, but on Friday week the Democrats succeeded in electing their Burgess and one of the Council. Our friend and patron, Mr. W. P. M'Nite, an earnest Democrat and worthy gentleman, came in for the honors of the latter position, and we feel sure that no better selection could have been made.

The Greensburg papers announce the death in that place, on the 3d inst., of Elias Eagle, Esq., formerly of Lebanon, but for [illegible] years past a resident of Ludwick and Greensburg. Mr. E. was a strict, enthusiastic Democrat, and was last year elected Director of the Poor by that party. He was highly esteemed for his honest and generous impulses. His remains were followed to the grave by the Masonic and Odd Fellow fraternities and by a large concourse of citizens.

The managers of the proposed Catholic Fair [illegible] us to suggest that a report of the various articles being prepared for that occasion should be made to some one of their number at an early day. We further suggest, on our own responsibility, that the managers themselves "be up and doing," as there is much to be done to make this enterprise the complete success it should be, and there is not a great deal of time to do it in. Don't do as we do, but do as we say.

A "loyal" gentleman named Hale, who was instrumental in getting up the scheme which ousted Senator Shugart from his seat, and who recently absconded from Philipsburg, Centre county, with large amounts of money belonging to the Adams' Express Company and others, has been captured at Portland, Maine. He took with him from Tyrone a "frail fair one," who left a pet bird behind her in Altoona. Upon reaching Portland she telegraphed for her bird, and a detective followed the cage and caged Mr. Hale.

The Feast of Easter was observed by our Catholic friends here with the usual grand and imposing ceremonies and church decorations which mark the great festivals of the year. The altar was most tastefully and beautifully ornamented with flowers, evergreens and lighted candles—the pyramidical decorations on either end of the altar being particularly fine and pleasing. The excellent choir did admirably in the new Mass selected for the occasion, and the pastor delivered an eloquent and feeling sermon appropriate to the festival.

AMATEUR CONCERT.—Prof. H. H. Hughes, who for several weeks past has been giving instructions in vocal music in this place, designs giving a grand vocal and instrumental concert at the Court House, on Friday evening of next week, in which a number of his pupils and the celebrated Crystal Band will participate. Mr. Hughes' school is composed of the Young America of our town, who have become very proficient as vocalists under his masterly tuition, and we feel confident that the concert will be well worthy of liberal patronage. We trust the boys and girls will be greeted with a full house.

MR. EVANS' RECITATIONS, at the Court House, on Tuesday evening of next week, will be, if we are to judge from notices of our exchanges, one of the rare opportunities for our citizens to listen to an evening's entertainment instructive and of a high order, as Mr. Evans brings testimonials of a superior character from the press and public of every part of the country. Not the least important will be Mr. Conway's poem of the "Bribed Legislator," which must have a peculiar attraction to the people of this locality at the present time.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—In compliance with request, we publish the following obituary notice and preamble and resolutions, as we find them published in the last Altoona Tribune:

On Thursday last, William Hughes, formerly of Philadelphia, was buried in Fair View Cemetery, at this place. His funeral was largely attended. The Machinists and Blacksmiths' Union, No. 12, of Altoona, (of which he was a member,) nobly took charge of the corpse, and conducted everything in a respectable manner. The following associations participated in the funeral services: Empire Hook & Ladder Co., Good Will Fire Co., Junior Sons of America, Mountain Star B. B. Club, Machinists and Blacksmiths' Union, the workmen of the shops, together with a large concourse of lady and gentlemen friends, making one of the most imposing and solemn processions that we have seen for some time.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a stated meeting of the M. and B. U. No. 12, of Penna., held April 1st, 1868, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Divine Ruler of the Universe to remove from our midst our late and lamented brother, William H. Hughes, therefore be it

Resolved, That while we deeply regret the loss of our Brother, we do but see the great working of a just and true God.

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathies to the relatives and friends of the deceased, with the assurance that their loss is his gain.

Resolved, That as a token of respect, the Charter of our Lodge be draped in mourning for the space of thirty days.

Resolved, That the above preamble and resolutions be published in the Altoona Tribune, the Welcome Workman, the M. & B. Journal, and also that copies be forwarded to the deceased Brother's friends.

ERROR CORRECTED.—In a local item in the Freeman, of last week, in speaking of a business change in Ebensburg, we mentioned the new proprietor of the stock as J. Patton Thompson, late of Philadelphia. That late was all wrong—but it is, we hope, not too late to correct it.

Our old friend Joe, though owning and controlling what he alleges he can and will make the cheapest store in Ebensburg, still resides in Philadelphia, and his old friends (and new ones too, we trust,) will find him at his old business stand with M. M. Marple & Co., at their large and extensive wholesale Notion House, No. 53 North Third street, where he will be equally happy at all times to sell cheap goods, or crack a good joke with any customer.

He begs leave, at the same time, to assure his Cambria friends that his Ebensburg stock has been selected with special reference to the wants and tastes of our people, and that from his position at headquarters he can make a better selection of goods than can be found elsewhere, and sell them cheaper than can be bought any where else. He only invites the public to call and judge of the quality and price for themselves.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—The publisher acknowledges the receipt, from his kind friend, Mr. Alver Akers, Johnstown, of a large and luscious steak and a munificent share of suet, cut from the 2500 pounds steer butchered last week by the firm of which Mr. Akers is a member. The steak was tender and toothsome, and furnished three meals for "four of us." The generous donor has the thanks and good wishes of our little household. May he ever prosper.

For the first time in our Ebensburg experience we have been made the recipient of a box of cigars—and that too by a gentleman who is not a dealer in the article, and who sought no other puff than what the cigars themselves will furnish. The donor is no other than our clever and estimable young friend, Dr. D. W. Zeigler, who is not only a first-class Dentist but a first-class gentleman in "any way you take him," and if he don't find more teeth to pull out and put in in consequence of this remembrance of the printer, it won't be because we ain't willing to speak a good word for him whenever occasion offers. So mote it be.

"RED JACKET AXE."—We present in our advertising columns a representation of this celebrated implement, from which our readers may form a pretty accurate idea of the capacity of the article for cleaving its way through a log of wood. Mr. Huntley has been selling quite a number of these axes since he first introduced them here, and no lumberman or woodchopper should do without this implement a day longer than necessity requires. Mr. H. keeps many other articles of a labor-saving character, and his establishment is well worthy the patronage of all classes seeking hardware, tinware, groceries, etc.

UP TO HIS EYES.—The busiest man in this community just now is our young friend, Harry Shoemaker. He is literally up to his eyes in business, receiving goods and selling goods so constantly and rapidly that he hasn't time to go to his meals. Those handsome light-colored felt hats, which so many good looking young men are just now sporting, are from his establishment, as are many other fashionable fabrics at present being worn by both sexes. Harry has a large stock, a beautiful stock, and knows how to win custom by selling cheap.

CHAS. ROBERTS has just received a few Ladies' extra fine hunting cased gold watches; also the National (Elgin, Ill.) watches, Patent Levers, 18 karat plain heavy gold finger rings, triple plated spoons, silver spectacles, silver watch chains, books, stationery, etc., also, all the leading Magazines and weekly papers for sale regularly. Call soon, as they must go cheaper than ever. All goods reduced in price. If you don't believe it, go and see.

"PLAYING IT ALONE."—We have already announced that Rowland Davis is going it alone at the store late of Mills & Davis, but we have yet to say that he is in the field with a large and certainly a most choice assortment of spring goods of all kinds, and is determined to make his prices and his merchandize commend him to the further patronage of this community. Pop in on him.

NOT YET.—No new goods have yet been introduced into the store of Joe P. Thompson under the new regime, but the present week will not go by without witnessing a perfect avalanche of all styles and textures pouring into that establishment, and when they do come they will be the right kind, and when they go they will go at low figures and good bargains.

The welcome sunshine has again dawned upon us this (Wednesday) morning, and it is to be hoped, now at least, that the "Spring time has come, gentle Annie"—or any other woman—to assume its rightful prerogatives.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

JOHNSTOWN, April 13, 1868.

Dear Freeman—The "Black Crook" engagement terminated here on Saturday evening, and the contract of a number of the performers having been fulfilled, the troupe disbanded. This performance attracted large audiences, and as the scenery and stage properties were all of a first-class order, every person who attended expressed himself highly pleased with the entertainment. Mr. Evans, who personated the "Black Crook," will give a series of readings in Fronheiser's Hall, commencing on Thursday night—the proceeds to be devoted to those who are still suffering from the effects of the "14th Sept. accident." Mr. E. is said to be one of the finest elocutionists in the country, and as the object is a worthy one, he will doubtless have crowded houses.

Under the new regime our active and efficient police force are prepared to play a first-class game of base ball, as they have been furnished with handspikes all round, although I believe they are dignified by the name of "Maces." At a country log-rolling they would be just the things, and the beautiful and massive iron ring which adorns the end would prevent them from wearing out. As one of these delicate clubs will doubtless be produced at the Quarter Sessions your citizens will have an excellent opportunity of seeing a specimen.

The cellar of a house in Woodvale was entered by a burglarious individual on Saturday night last, and six loaves of bread abstracted therefrom.

The bridge across the Conemaugh at Walnut street is undergoing some much needed repairs. The side-walks will be considerably widened, and new floor timbers will replace the present decayed and unsafe ones.

SKU BAL.

DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS.—Mr. Leopold, Mayer of New York city, has opened out in Parke's new iron-front building, Johnstown, a large and complete assortment of dry goods and notions, and is prepared to accommodate all who favor him with their patronage with the choicest stock of goods ever brought to that place. The crowning glory of Mr. M.'s establishment is the millinery department, which is under the charge of Miss Helena Inman, a first-class N. Y. modiste, and whose thorough knowledge of the latest Paris, London and New York fashions will command her to the patronage of all who think it is "better to be out of the world than out of the fashion." We shall hereafter speak more particularly of this mammoth establishment, and at present can only advise any of our readers visiting Johnstown to call at the new dry goods and notion store.

MESSRS. COHEN & BRO., of Johnstown, desire to call the attention of the citizens of Ebensburg and vicinity to the fact that they have removed their clothing establishment to the new three story building recently erected by Mr. Parke, and have now on hand the largest and finest stock of clothing and gent's furnishing goods which can be found in the country, and at prices considerably lower than the same quality of goods can be purchased elsewhere. The Messrs. C. are clever men to deal with, and as a considerable number of our mountain citizens visit Johnstown to buy their clothing, we advise them to give these gentlemen a call. Store on Main street.

GOODS VS. WEATHER.—Spring goods are much more plentiful in this "neck of timber" just now than Spring weather, but the weather might be hurried up a little by making an onslaught on the goods, and a very good place to commence the attack is at V. S. Barker's store, where a most ample and handsome stock has just been received, and will be sold at lowest prices.

Treasurer's Office, Ebensburg, April 9, 1868.

Philip Burkhart vs. Mary Burkhart. } In the Court of Common Pleas of Cambria Co. No. 97 Dec. Term, 1867. LIBEL IN DIVORCE.

AND NOW: The 11th day of March, A. D. 1868, Wm. H. Sechler appointed Commissioner to take testimony in the above case.
Cambria County, ss:
Extract from the Record of said Court. Certified 11th day of March, A. D. 1868.
GEO. C. K. ZAHM, Proth'y.

Notice is hereby given that I will attend to the duties of the above appointment, at my office in the Borough of Ebensburg, on Wednesday, the 22d day of April next, at 2 o'clock P. M., when and where those interested may attend.
WM. H. SECHLER, Commissioner.
Ebensburg, April 2, 1868.-3t.

LAST NOTICE.—All persons indebted to the undersigned are requested to make settlement of their accounts, either by paying the cash or giving their notes, on or before the first day of June next.
J. J. KRISE, M. D.
St. Augustine, March 12, 1868.

HOW TO COOK SHAD.—The fresh shad season is now at hand, and in order that our lady readers may be enabled to do ample justice to this excellent fish, we publish the following method of boiling their finny victims:—Clean the shad, wash and wipe it, flour it well, wrap it in a cloth and place it in a large vessel of boiling water with a great deal of salt. It will require about twenty minutes to cook it. Serve it up with eggs, sauce or rich drawn butter. This most excellent fish is said to be very palatable when dressed in the manner stated.

CROUP.—Mothers of young children are apt at this season of the year, to be anxious over the prevalence of croup. A lady, referring to this fact, writes as follows: I wish to send you my mother's recipe, which all who have tried deem infallible: Take one ounce sweet oil, and add half an ounce of gum opal. Apply to chest under the arms, the palms of the hands, and hollows of the feet. It will generally relieve the most severe cases of croup in five minutes. Remember to use externally, and drink plentifully of cold water."

A WASH composed of lime, salt and fine sand or wood ashes, put on in the ordinary way of whitewashing renders the roof fifty per cent more secure against taking fire from falling cinders, in case of fire in the vicinity. It pays the expense a hundred fold in its preserving influence against the effects of the weather. The older and more weather beaten the shingles, the more benefit derived.

EGGS.—As the egg season approaches, housewives begin to think of how best to preserve them. The next best plan to that of eating, is suggested by a correspondent of the Scientific American, who has been using eggs two years old preserved thus:—1 peck good lime; 2 oz. cream tartar; 1 tea cup of table salt. Slake the lime with hot soft water; when cold, stir in the salt and tartar.

FEA CAKE.—One pint of flour into which put two teaspoonfuls of cream of tartar; one cup of sweet milk, into which put one teaspoonful of soda; two tablespoonsful of butter, and one cup of sugar mixed well together; then break into it two eggs; add milk and flour; flavor with grated rind and juice of a lemon.

A CORRESPONDENT of an Iowa paper advises fruit growers to be very cautious how they apply tar, coal oil, turpentine, salt, &c., to their trees; he has seen trees killed by these so-called remedies for the canker-worm, borer, &c. He uses molasses with the most successful results.

FARM AND STORE BUILDING FOR SALE.—The undersigned offers for sale a valuable Farm situated in Carroll township, Cambria county, at the old Toll Gate on the Plank Road leading from Ebensburg to Carrolltown, and about one mile from the latter place. The Farm is well known as the Luther place, contains 124 acres or thereabouts, is nearly all cleared, and has a two and a-half story frame Dwelling House, in good repairs, a large Bank Barn and all necessary outbuildings thereon erected, as well as two orchards of choice fruit and never-failing spring of water on the premises.

Also, will be sold, the Store House at present occupied by the subscriber, a large and commodious building and in a good location for trade.

The Farm and Store House will be sold either separately or together, as may suit purchasers. JACOB LEIB.

March 19, 1868. 4t*

FARM FOR SALE.—The subscriber offers at Private Sale his valuable FARM, situated in Cambria township, two miles east of Ebensburg, on the road leading to Loretto. The Farm consists of 80 Acres, more or less, about 54 Acres of which are cleared, under good fence, and in a good state of cultivation. The balance of the land is well set with sugar, chestnut, locust, and other marketable timber. There is a comfortable FRAME HOUSE and a FRAME BARN on the premises, and an Orchard of choice Fruit Trees that have never yet failed to bear. There is also a never-failing spring of pure water and other necessary conveniences on the premises. The Farm will be sold on fair terms and easy payments, and an indisputable title will be given. What is known as Bradley's Station, on the E. & C. Rail Road, is located on this land.

Further information can be obtained by applying to CHARLES BRADLEY.

Cambria Tp., March 19, 1868.-tf.

PUBLIC SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—The undersigned will expose to sale by public vendue or outcry, at the Hotel of Wm. Callan, at Cresson, on SATURDAY, THE 18TH DAY OF APRIL, INSTANT, at 2 o'clock P. M., a certain PIECE OR PARCEL OF LAND situate in Washington township, Cambria county, adjoining lands of Daniel Gurney, Philip Pritch, and others, (late the property of John Porter, Esq.,) containing 150 ACRES, more or less.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-half in hand, and the balance in one year thereafter, with interest, to be secured by the judgment bond of the purchaser. WM. KITTELL.

P. S. The above property will be sold as described, or in two or more parts, to suit purchasers. [apr.2.-3t.
